BEECHWOOD

Princess Anne vicinity

The Beechwood estate was the long-time home of the Waters and Elzey families, who occupied this tract known as "Manlove's Discovery and "Gray's Adventure" since the second quarter of the eighteenth century. The current house was probably built during the ownership of Levin Littleton Waters after his marriage to Elizabeth R. W. Hyland on May 30, 1827. In 1850, a commission was established to divide Levin L. Waters' land holdings, and Lot No. 1, consisting of the house and 110 acres, was apportioned to Levin L. Waters, Jr. (WP 2/147).

By the time of the 1877 county atlas, Levin L. Waters, Jr. ~~was the~~ Somerset County Clerk of Court and owned 315 acres. His will was proved on April 12, 1912, and the fourth item states his sisters, Emily R. Waters and Eliza W. Waters, would receive the residue of his estate. Eliza Waters Hart transferred the property to her husband through her will of January, 1940, and her husband sold Beechwood to the American Legion Post, No. 94 (174/488).

Since the house was purchased by the American Legion Post, the ^{dwelling} ~~house~~ has undergone several alterations including a large meeting room addition on the west side and a thorough interior renovation. The south (front) elevation still retains its gable front orientation. Unusual to Beechwood is its pedimented entrance which echoes the gable front of the main house.

Beechwood Description

Beechwood stands at the end of a long entrance lane on the eastern edge of Princess Anne, Somerset County, Maryland. Now converted to an American Legion Post headquarters, the two-story nineteenth-century frame house faces south with the principal gable oriented on an east/west axis.

Erected during the second quarter of the nineteenth century, Beechwood is supported by an infilled brick pier foundation and is completely covered with aluminum siding. The medium pitched asphalt shingle roof has a pedimented front. Attached to the west side of the house is a modern, flat-roofed meeting hall addition. An American Legion cemetery is located east of the post headquarters.

The south (main) elevation is an uneven three-bay facade which is covered on the first floor by an enclosed porch. Distinguishing the entrance bay is a projecting one-bay gabled pavilion that mirrors the gable front of the main block. Lighting the second floor are three six over six sash windows, and a smaller six over six sash window pierces the gable front.

The east side of the house has a shorter two-story, two-bay addition that extends on a perpendicular axis from the main house. The exterior features, such as the aluminum siding, the six over six sash windows, and the medium pitched asphalt shingle roof remain consistent with the main block.

The north side of the center block is fully covered by a three-story, two-bay, one-room plan wing which is covered on the first floor by various shed additions. An interior end stack rises from the north gable end.

Attached to the west side of the house is a single-story flat roofed meeting hall wing which is supported by a concrete block foundation and covered by a flat roof.

The first floor interior of Beechwood has been thoroughly reworked to accommodate a large hall, a kitchen, a billiard room, and bathrooms. For the most part modern materials were used in remodeling, and any mid nineteenth century woodwork was removed. The second floor was not seen.
